

This data privacy notice is issued to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations which came into force on 25th May 2018.

Headington Action maintains:

- A list of members, their names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses. This information is used to maintain an email and address list for disseminating information.
- A list of persons who have expressed interest in being informed about our activities (such as Headington Market and Headington Festival). The data consists of email addresses and [perhaps] names. This data is used for disseminating information. All on the list have given explicit permission.
- Lists of names and email address of persons involved in specific projects or activities of HA. This data is shared only between those involved in the project or activity.

The above data is never shared with any other organisation. The above data can only be viewed by Executive members of HA or those with specific management responsibility for activities or projects. All above databases are secure on password controlled computers.

The 'lawful basis' for this data processing is the 'legitimate interests' of HA. If you have any questions about this, please contact us.
